NEGRO HELD ON MURDER CHARGE

John Lee Will Be Arraigned Monday
Before Mayor C. L. Bebout and Bound Over to Grand Jury

ADMITS THAT RIFLE IS HIS

When Confronted With Gun Found on Anderson Farm Yesterday, he Confesses to Coroner.

WAS NO THIRD MAN PRESENT

New Story Exonerates Luther Butts
And he is Released From Jail.
Second Degree Murder

John Lee, colored, the man held in jail in connection with the mysterious death of Joe Clevenger, will be arraigned before Mayor Bebout Monday morning at nine o'clock to answer to the charge of murder. The murder charge was placed against the colored man this morning and the time was set for the preliminary hearing. The charge was filed by Sheriff Cavitt.

The preliminary hearing will be the first step towards the final ending of the case. He will be bound over to the grand jury as Mayor Bebout has no jurisdiction when it comes to sentencing him.

The charge against Lee is murder in the second degree, it being stated in the affidavit that he "feloniously, purposely and maliciously, but without premeditation, did kill and murder Joseph Clevenger, a human being by then and there unlawfully, feloniously and maliciously, but without premeditation, shooting at and against Joseph Clevenger with a rifle loaded with a charge of gunpowder and one leaden bullet."

The filing of the charge of murder against the colored man came after the sensational developments of yesterday evening. When confronted with the rifle, which was found near a straw stack on the S. B. (Burney) Anderson farm yesterday, Lee identified it as belonging to him and confessed that there was no third party to the shooting. This, of course, completely exonerated Luther Butts and he was released from jail.

Prosecutor Smith and Coroner Barnett took the rifle to the jail at three-thirty o'clock yesterday afternoon and at four-fifteen o'clock had the complete story from Lee. The developments came thick and fast and the climax was reached this morning with the filing of the murder charge. The negro seemed surprised that the rifle had been found and made no attempt to deny that it was the one by which Clevenger met his death.

After identifying the rifle Lee told the officers the true version of the affair, or at least what is believed to be a true recital. He first cleared Butts by stating that the story regarding the third party was all a lie and that he and Clevenger were alone at the time of the shooting. He stated that Clevenger and he were struggling for possession of the rifle and that during the scuffle the gun exploded. As soon as the shot was fired Clevenger released his hold, according to the negro, and whirled around. The negro stated that he did not wait to see whether Clevenger fell for he ran just as soon as the shot was fired.

The story told yesterday by the negro was the same as the one first told, with the exception of the facts about the actual shooting and the

SIX YEAR OLD BOY DIES

Leland Bennington Expires Following
Operation For Appendicitis.

Leland Bennington, six years old, son of Mrs. Ida Bennington, died last night at seven-thirty o'clock, at the sanatorium following an operation for appendicitis. Besides his mother the boy is survived by several brothers and sisters. The family recently moved near Sexton from Greensburg. The remains were taken to the residence of John Knecht in North Main street, and will be removed to Greensburg Saturday morning where the burial will take place.

TWO ARE FINED IN POLICE COURT

Burney Adams Goes to Jail For Eleven Days But Riley Wilhelm Plays His.

NO MORE "CREDIT" IN COURT

Burney Adams was fined one dollar and costs this morning in police court by Mayor Bebout on the charge of public intoxication. He went back to jail for eleven days. Adams stated that he obtained his liquor in Connersville and tried to beg off from going to jail on a promise to pay the fine. Mayor Bebout has decided that their will be no more promises to pay in his court and hereafter all the drunks will either pay up or go to jail. From now on it will not be the usual dollar and costs for the second offenders and they can expect to get the limit.

When Mayor Bebout refused to let Burney Adams go Adams became angry and told the mayor that his brother had been released without paying a fine. To show Burney that all would be treated alike Omer Adams was ordered placed in jail to serve out fifteen days against him for intoxication. Omer Adams was fined five dollars and costs about six weeks ago and was allowed to go free on the promise that he would pay his fine. He has never offered to pay a cent and Mayor Bebout thought he would make good company for his brother.

Riley Wilhelm was fined one dollar and costs last night on a similar charge. Wilhelm paid his fine, amounting to $11. Wilhelm was arrested yesterday by Chief Rosenkrance.

PUT GERMANS ON DEFENSE

Russians Claim Invading Army is Given Set-Back.

(By United Press.)

Petrograd, Dec. 4.—The attempted resumption of the German offensive following the reforming of the line of the invading army has been without results it is claimed here today.

The Russians have extended their line along the Vistula, near Lowicz. They have again forced the Germans to take the defense. This line extends to the north of Lodz and unofficial reports claim the Germans have been forced to fall back throughout this district.

Miss Pearl Gordon and Benjamin Walker were married yesterday afternoon by the Rev. V. W. Tevis.

CHRISTMAS IS 3 WEEKS TODAY

It is High Time That Good Fellows
League Was Getting Busy With
So Few Days to Work

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

Charity Workers Will Begin to Get
Names Next Week But You May Join Any Time.

SEND IN THE MONEY.

Those who have subscribed money for the Belgian relief fund and not paid it are urged to send it in to the Daily Republican at once so that the fund can be closed. The flour will be made probably by next Thursday and it is desired that the accounts be square.

The Good Fellows League today announces its schedule—and it's high time because just three weeks from today Christmas will be celebrated all over the land.

The League has a rather auspicious start this year, with $40.05 in the treasury, but the intent of the League is that the members take the names of needy little folks of Rushville and buy them Christmas gifts.

The League is in co-hoots with several charity workers who are going to get the names, ages and addresses of all of the children who would not have any Christmas if it were not for the kindly disposed people of Rushville. The charity workers will start on their errand of good cheer the first part of next week and by the middle of the week, it is likely that there will be some names at the Daily Republican office for the first Good Fellows to take.

The League doesn't keep any records. None is ever made. If you want to be a Good Fellow and don't want other folks to know about it, why that's a very simple matter. All you have to do is say the word, and no one will ever be the wiser.

The Good Fellows League is organized on a philanthropic basis. It includes everybody. All people are privileged to be members. It was the rule last year that some few who did not feel that they had time to do the buying for some children sent in a contribution, but the idea embodied in the Good Fellows League is that the Good Fellows superintend the purchasing themselves.

Under this plan each child can come nearer to receiving from Santa Claus what is most needed. Besides it does away with the final rush Christmas eve that was customary when the Santa Claus fund was in operation. A few charity workers had to do all of the wrapping, and the delivery as well as a big task. Of course, nothing is to prohibit you becoming a good fellow at once. You drop around and leave your name and the number of children you want. Or, even better, you might drop a line to the Daily Republican saying how many children you want to make happy Christmas. Then when the names are gathered by the charity workers, the names, ages and addresses of the number you desired will be forwarded to you by mail.

It's such a simple matter, this being a Good Fellow. There isn't a whole lot of fun about, but the joy comes from the giving and those who have been joiners before always come right back and take on more the next year. If any of you Good Fellows have any preference as to ages and sexes, you should state them because you can nearly always be accommodated.

ONE SIDE ENDS ITS CASE TODAY

Plaintiff Rests in $5,000 Damage Suit Bought by Charles Widman Against 2 Railroads.

OUTGROWTH OF ACCIDENT

Witness Tells of Speed of Train
When it Hit Automobile—Filed in Connersville.

The plaintiff rested this afternoon in the $5,000 damage suit of Charles Widman against the Big Four and Lake Erie railroads. The case was sent here on a change of venue from Fayette county. From all indications the case will go to the jury Saturday afternoon. Good time has been made in trying the case and while a large number of witnesses have been examined the case will not require as long as first thought.

Widman alleges that he was injured at Eleventh street crossing of the railroads in Connersville through the negligence of the defendant companies. The Lake Erie railway has admitted that it was their train that hit the automobile causing the injury to Widman. Widman, who is an employee of the Connersville Furniture Factory, was driving the machine owned by E. V. Hawkins, president of the company, and as he was returning from an errand for Mr. Hawkins, the machine became stalled on the track and was hit while he was attempting to push it off the track.

The first witness was Robert Greenwood, a civil engineer who told the jury the general lay of the land surrounding the crossing at Eleventh street. Mr. Greenwood exhibited several maps which were used to give the jury a location of the scene. S. E. Dale, an employee of the factory, stated that he saw the train approaching and that at Eleventh street it was running twenty miles an hour. He stated that at the time it went by the factory it was running fifteen miles an hour and that at the time it hit the auto it was probably running at a speed of from twelve to fifteen miles an hour.

Other witnesses were John J. Turner, James P. Heller, E. V. Hawkins, Charles Widman and his wife, M. C. Thompson and Thomas Stedman. All were questioned concerning the speed of the train and the condition of Mr. Widman immediately following the accident.

In the case of Bertha Potts against Earl Churchill, called for next Monday a special venire of six names was ordered drawn. The venire as follows: Alfred R. Buell, Rushville; Charles Murphy, Posey; Henry Schriber, Jackson; W. T. Moore, Richland; Robert Holt, Jackson, and Charles B. French, Richland. It is a partition and quiet title suit.

The case of William Bowen against Owen Sweet, to foreclose a mechanics lien, demanding $50, was dismissed this morning and the costs paid.

NO REPORT TODAY.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 4.—Indications late today were that the report of the Marion county grand jury on the legislature probe would again be delayed. It is expected tomorrow.

Word received here that a boy has been born to the wife of Halbert Caldwell in Indianapolis.

SANFORD COLE EXPIRES

Dies Suddenly of Lewisville of Acute Indigestion.

The funeral of Sanford Cole, age 67 years, who died at his home east of Lewisville yesterday very suddenly of acute indigestion, will be held at the Lewisville Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by the Rev. W. R. Motley of Richmond. Burial will take place at Lewisville. Mr. Cole had been sick for two weeks, but during the last week it was thought he was improving. He ate a hearty breakfast yesterday. He is survived by a widow, one sister and three brothers.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE BROKEN OFF

"Colorado Situation" Looms Big in Eastern Ohio Coal Fields When Conference Breaks Today.

STRIKE BREAKERS COMING

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, O., Dec. 4.—The strike since April in the eastern Ohio coal fields with its 41,000 starving people will continue. Miners' and operators' representatives in conference here for three days at noon today broke off all negotiations and adjourned for good.

With the split today came the prospects of a "Colorado situation" in the Ohio mine fields.

"The operators are determined to break the spirit of our men," said C. J. Albasin, president of the eastern Ohio sub-district union. "They can not do it. We now hear they are preparing to open the mines with strike breakers. If the operators force a Colorado situation upon us we will do everything within our power to meet it."

MANILLA SCHOOL WILL BE ELEVATED

Most Likely Will be Made Commissioned High School by State Board December 15.

INSPECTOR VISITS IT TODAY

Miss Adelaide Steel Baylor, from the office of the state superintendent of public instruction, inspected the Manilla high school today with a view of placing it among the list of the commissioned high schools of the state. Miss Baylor will report to the state board of education at its meeting December 15 and if the report is satisfactory, the Manilla school will be commissioned.

The school is already in the certified class and there is little doubt but that the state board will make it a commissioned school because it has met all of the requirements laid down by the state board. The Manilla school will make the second commissioned high school in the county outside of Rushville and Carthage. The other one is at Milroy.

The high schools at New Salem, Arlington, Raleigh and Center are now certified schools and can now fill all but one requirement for commissioned schools. Commissioned schools must have eight months terms, but these four only have seven months. A school is not commissioned until it has had an eight months school year for three years.

CONFUSION HAS BEEN THE RESULT

Requirements of "War Tax" Measure as Regards Public Instruments Are Not Understood.

RULINGS ARE ANNOUNCED

Failure to Stamp One Does Not Invalidate it, But it Can Not be Recorded.

Since a new supply of "war tax" stamps has reached Indianapolis, there is no more fear of a shortage here. It is still the case, however, that persons who have to use the stamps will have to get their supply in Indianapolis until some authorized agency is established here or some local institution announces that it has the stamps for sale.

Attention was called to the fact by postoffice employees yesterday that already some "war tax" stamps had been used to mail letters. Persons who want their mail to reach its destination should be careful about using the special stamps. If the person to whom the letter is addressed is willing to pay the postage, the letter is delivered, but if the contrary is the case, the letter lies in the postoffice for a certain length of time, and if the postage is not paid, goes to the dead letter office in Washington.

The new war tax has made itself felt in all walks of life. It is common report that some persons who contemplate a leap into wedded life have been asking questions about the new revenue measure, fearing, evidently, that there is a tax on marriage licenses.

There has been a great deal of confusion about the requirements of the new measure as regards public instruments. Failure to stamp such a document, it is pointed out, does not invalidate, although no such document can be recorded by law unless it carries the proper stamps.

In the stamp act of 1898 the law declared that such an instrument unstamped could not be presented as evidence, but this restriction has been stricken from the present law. Failure to stamp such a document will lay the person open to a penalty of $10 and when the price of the required stamp exceeds $50, an additional penalty in the form of interest at the rate of 6 per cent.

The commissioner of internal revenue

Rheumatism In Joints

Pain Disappears and Swelling Vanishes in a Few Days

That is what happens if you use Rheuma, the wonderful remedy that Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists sell on the "money back if not cured" plan. There is a vast amount of rheumatism in this vicinity, and if you know any sufferer, call his attention to this generous offer.

Rheuma is a quick-acting prescription. You will know your rheumatism is leaving 24 hours after you take the first dose. It dissolves the uric acid and drives it from its lodging place.

Mrs. Alice A. Brown, Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "For seven years I suffered greatly with rheumatism in my hip; at night I was scarcely able to sleep. One bottle of Rheuma cured me."

That sounds miraculous, but Rheuma does miraculous things. Fifty cents a bottle of Johnson & Company and all druggists.

Bewildering Array of Capes and Cloaks to be Seen this Season

BY MARGARET MASON
(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Eve's mantle has descended on the modern maid they say
But just what sort of mantle do they mean?

The only mantle poor Eve knew was when a rosy blush

Had mantled all her snowy brow serene.

The only coat she had, no doubt was just a coat of tan.

Her only wrap when she was wrapped in thought.

The modern maid don't give a rap for any wrap like that.

For they sport every cloak that can be bought.

They wouldn't even give a fig for Eve's bareskin outfit

Selected sealskin they prefer I've noted

They have a different wrap and cloak for everything they do

Why even when they're ill their tongues are coated.

New York, Dec. 4.—Keeping up with the Fashion means adapting a bit of brogue and "capeing" up with them this season. Such a bewildering array of capes and wraps and mantles and loose and coatees and jackets and flaring cloaks are offered for each and every occasion.

The sumptuous evening wraps of brilliantly tinted velvets, fur collared cuffed and edge are the same wonderful creations as shown earlier in the season. The military capes and flaring Cassock cloaks, the braided and frogged military jackets have their staunch adherents still. It is of the new sport coats however, delightfully appropriate for golf, for motoring, for skating, for hiking or just plain knock about wear that descriptions are now in good order.

There is a great run on corduroy for sport coats and they are shown in all the brilliant colorings as well as in the more conservative tones of "tete de negre" Russian green, sand putty, mustard and corbeau blue! A particularly stunning model in this material is almost ankle length with a flaring bell shaped back and a belt consisting of two stitched straps across it. The collar is the new military effect and buttons up tightly about the throat. Short box coats buttoned up high around the neck and widely belted come in corduroy as well as in the huge horseblanket plaid effect just like big brothers mackinaw. These shorter coats are of course more desirable for skating and golf but going them one better for these sports are the lovely light weight but fleecily warm belted sweaters of angora wool in softest pastel tints of old rose, old blue, old gold, sage green and grey. With jaunty caps to match what skittish skater or girlish golfer could ask for more perfect apparel.

As usual clever woman has helped herself to the best of masculine garb for her own needs. She has taken his new picadilly raglan of Scotch mixture or English tweed and lifted it bodily to her own fair shoulders. There to do for a storm coat, a motor coat, a hiking coat or travel coat of much and varied service.

A novel raincoat of transparent rubberized crepe de chine is the latest chic covering to keep midday from the wrathful elements. They come in shimmering and shining greens and yellows and are as durable as they appear delicate. Perky little hats to match make up a moisture proof outfit guaranteed to keep their lucky wearers as dry as the state of Kansas. You are sure to be spotted as ultra smart if you are wearing a leopard skin coat this winter. There seems to be something particularly fitting about this feline fur that adapts itself to most terms of femininity.

(Certainly not, Geraldine, no catty insinuations are meant.) There's something fascinatingly barbaric and elemental about it that makes it especially alluring on a sinuous brunette with glowing olive skin and scarlet lips and dusky eyes.

Thus coated lovely woman has it on the leopard whose skin she is sporting in as much as she can change her spots with impunity by simply shedding his hide.

Leopard skin coats collared and cuffed in beaver or seal skin are very striking but even simply self trimmed they have a three weekish effect that out far Glyns Eleanor's old tiger skin.

importance as it is now known that the negro was responsible for Clevenger's death.

admission that there was no third party. He stated that Clevenger had attempted to buy the rifle and that they were still talking about it as they approached the lane. He said Clevenger became very angry and attempted to take the rifle away from him. He says Clevenger had hold of the barrel end of the gun and in the struggle the gun was fired. The negro explained how the cartridges happened to be on the ground beside Clevenger. He stated that in the struggle the magazine was jarred loose and when it was out so far the shells fall out.

From the scene of the shooting the negro said he went to the straw stack where the rifle was found and remained there until Sunday evening when he was forced by hunger to seek something to eat. He went to the farm house on the Anderson farm and obtained food. He then says that he walked back through this city and spent the night in a straw stack north of here. He wandered across country until picked up by Sheriff Cavitt and Chief Rosen-erance.

The confession of the negro that he was alone with Clevenger at the time of the shooting went along ways towards clearing up the mystery. When he first told his story, Luther Butts was suspected as being the third party. Butts maintained all the time that he was asleep when the negro and Clevenger left the house. Butts was highly elated when released from jail as he had been placed in a tight place by Lee.

The coroner has not yet filed his verdict but it will be of very little

Amusements

The Princess will show the four reel feature "The Royal Box" for tonight's program. The late Charles Coghlan, a noted actor, was the author of the play, which was first produced by Lieber and Company in New York. It enjoyed a great run and the moving picture is an exact reproduction of the play. Gertrude Coghlan, his daughter, appears in the picture as Celia Pryse. The story of "The Royal Box" chiefly concerns a favorite actor of a century ago in England, who is a close friend of the Prince of Wales and who occupied a peculiar position with the play-goers of that day. "The Royal Box" is constructably unique, in that it is a play within a play and is an artistic masterpiece.

The Portola will show the 3 reel Vitagraph feature "413" for tonight's program. It is said to be a thrilling railway drama and shows one of the greatest wreck scenes ever made in motion pictures. An entire train plunges over a fifty foot embankment. Anita Stewart, Julia Gordon, Harry Morey and an all star cast produces the picture.

ONE WEAK SPOT

Many Rushville People Have a Weak Part and Too Often It's the Back.

Many people have a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up, day and night.

Backache is often from weak kidneys.

In such cases a kidney medicine is needed.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

For backache and urinary ills.

Good proof of merit in the following statement.

Hiram Whalen, R. R. 1, Circleville, Rushville, township, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a fine remedy and we always keep them in the house. I had pains in my back, that made it hard for me to straighten after stooping and my kidneys caused me a great deal of trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the pains and aches and regulated the kidney action."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Whalen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., N. Y.

Buy Early and at Home.

Christmas shopping is the activity of most importance to the retail merchant at this season of the year.

The Indiana Retail Merchants Association wishes to impress upon the Christmas shoppers the idea of shopping early and doing it at home.

The reason so many people purchase their gifts away from home is because they dread the rush and inconvenience of Holiday shopping and they also complain the selection of articles for purchase is poor, the goods being shop-worn and picked over. They would rather send their money away to some outside community and rid themselves of the inconvenience of the crowds of late shoppers.

They seem to forget that by waiting, they cause the last wild rush and also the poor selection and shop-worn goods.

$10,000,000 is spent for Christmas gifts each year by the citizens of Indiana. Fifty per cent is spent away from the home community. The Indiana Retail Merchants Association urges the Christmas shoppers to do their shopping early and trade at home. It will make their shopping a pleasure and increase the prosperity of the home community.

Would There?

Commenting on the exclusive interview which the German Crown Prince granted Karl H. Von Wiegand of the United Press the New York World says editorially:

"The Crown Prince may be quite sincere when he says the war 'was forced upon', but would there have been war if Austria and Germany had desired to prevent war?"

The New York Times says:

"The German crown prince is absolutely merciless toward his sorely burdened Imperial parent. He adds immeasurably to the ponderous burden of responsibility that rests upon the kaiser's shoulders. The world will never understand why this powerful and resourceful monarch permitted himself to be forced into a distasteful war, a war which the professors tell us he abhorred, which his own son says is stupid, senseless, unnecessary."

The Perry County Tribune, one of the strongest Progressive papers in Indiana during the recent campaign, has returned to the Republican party. There is now practically nothing left of the Progressive party in Perry county. "We now have a united, militant Republican party in Perry County" writes Fred Irwin, Republican county chairman.

The Boone County Progressive has discontinued since the recent election. The Rensselaer Herald, another Progressive publication, has also given up the ghost.

Bloomington, Ind., Dec. 4.—Few Hoosiers know that the state of Indiana for nine months in the year publishes a four page six column daily paper. Yet such is being done this year at the printing plant of Indiana University. The paper is the university daily and is published by students in the School of Journalism.

The university printing plant, now in operation was completed just before the opening of school this fall.

Health--How to Preserve It
Disease--How to Prevent It

Prepared for the United Press by Dr. J. N. Hurty
State Health Commissioner

How One May Make Himself Sick, Induce Disease and Shorten Life

First Method.—Eat immoderately of meats. Meats eaten in large amounts clog the intestines; and instead of being digested and assimilated, they putrefy; poisons, (toxins) are formed and absorbed, and then appear coated tongue, dizziness, headaches, dullness, bad breath, fugitive pains and aches in the hips and elsewhere, and we "feel bad all over." This is usually called biliousness, cold, rheumatism, malaria, etc. A better name is—Auto-intoxication.

Solomon classes immoderate eating with drunkenness. He says: "Be ye not among wine bibbers, among riotous eaters of flesh." Solomon seemed to know intuitively what modern science was a long time finding out. One hundred people die annually in the United States from kidney diseases. When we let up eating riotously of meat, deaths from Bright's Disease will greatly decrease. So will many other diseases which we induce by self poisoning. If you wish to suffer with repeated attacks of biliousness (auto-intoxication), if you think you would like to suffer from cancer, kidney disease, and precocious old age with its multiple infirmities and die early, then be among wine bibbers and riotous eaters of flesh.

Second Method.—Eat plenty of spices, pickles and salads. These are not foods. They all stimulate the appetite and cause overeating. Food in excess of the needs of the body, will surely cause indigestion, mal assimilation and auto-intoxication (self-poisoning). Where is the sense in poisoning one's self? There is neither money, nor pleasure, nor strength in it. He is a jonbo-crunk who perverts his nutrition. As for spices—they constipate, stimulate and irritate. It is said—"Spices and pickles have killed more than war, famine, and earthquakes. We are commanded to love our enemies we literally practice this when we eat spices. The more spices are adulterated with ground cocoanut shells, etc., the better they are from the physiological point of view. To buy spices and eat them, producing constipation, and then to buy cathartics to relieve the constipation, is enough to make a horse laugh. Rice, dried fish and weak team, whipped Russia. The free eating of embalmied meat (ham, smoked fish, etc) will cause constipation. Cut them out, and force the cathartic tablet man to make his big fortune in some productive line of business.

Third Method.—Breathe plenty of foul air. By breathing plenty of foul air one can reduce appetite and assimilation: go to nickel theatres, churches, and public halls which are not ventilated. There is generally a good deal of foul air in lawyer's offices, court rooms, legislative rooms, justice of the peace offices, corner drug and corner grocery stores. It isn't hard to find. Just breathe lots of it, and you will surely soon consult a doctor of buy a tonic at the drug store; but you will stay ill just the same.

When we quit living against the laws of our well being, then exist invalidism, sickness and disease, and enter joyous health.

Hoosier History In Tabloid

(Prepared by the United Press from records in the State Library.)

With cries of election fraud going up from every section of Indiana it is interesting to note the first election ever held in Indiana and its simplicity. It was followed by no recounts, contempt proceedings or libel suits for it was merely a minor detail in the rugged and picturesque life of its frontiersmen.

John Todd as County-Lieutenant of the County of Illinois, which included what is now known as Indiana, ordered the first election of civil officers in 1779. It was the first election ever held in Indiana.

This election came only after Indiana had been the scene of a frontier war with many changing fortunes. The French had colonized it to claim the land for France, convert the Indiana and get the fur trade. Their frontiersmen consisted of the soldier, the priest and the trader. They discouraged agriculture.

In 1763 France ceded this territory to England as a result of the French and Indian war. The English held this until 1778 when George Roger Clark made his famous conquest. England also discouraged agriculture being interested in the fur trade.

General Clark was the hero of the Indiana district during the Revolutionary war. With the lives of American frontiersmen endangered continually by raids of the Indian allies of the English, he established a military frontier. Vincennes, Fort Wayne and Lafayette, under different names—were the centerpoints of this time.

CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN AT ONCE,
HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

In One Minute Your Stuffy Nose and Head Clears, Sneezing and Nose Running Cease, Dull Headache Goes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

Spinal Column, Where the Cause of Disease is Located

CHIROPRACTIC

(KI-RO-PRAC-TIC)

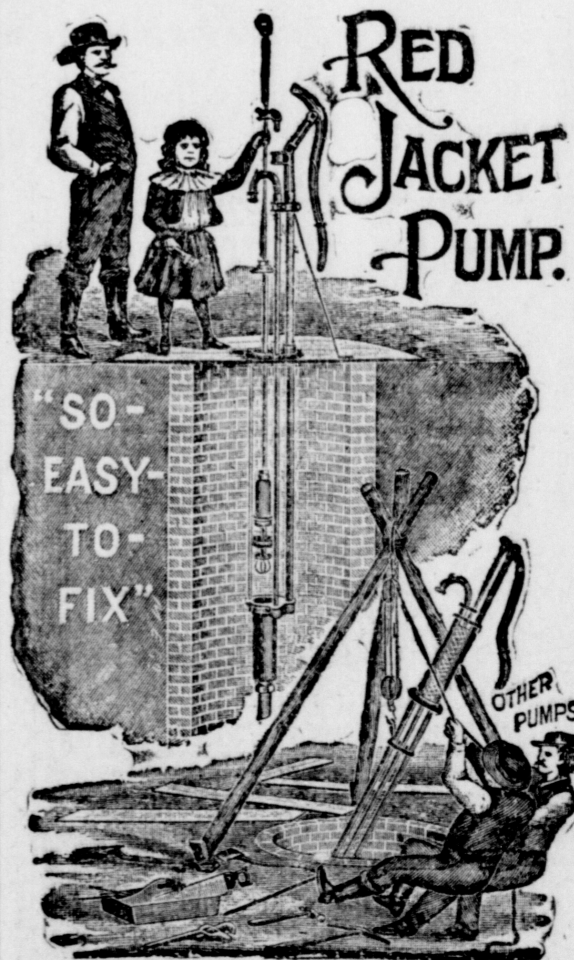

The scientific method of removing the cause of all disease by adjusting to the normal position the misplaced (subluxated) vertebrae of the spinal column. The subluxated vertebra cause pressure on the Great Trunk Nerves which emanate between them, thus shutting off the transmission of vital current from the brain to some organ or part of the body to which they lead, leaving it in a weakened condition, subject to disease, causing over 95 per cent of all sickness and suffering known to mankind. Chiropractic adjustments remove the pressure (the cause of disease), restores the vital energy and health returns. I use the hands only. I ask no questions; simply analyze the spine and tell you every place you are affected. Appendicitis, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Asthma, Neuralgia, Deafness, Loss of Voice, Insomnia, Constipation, Bed Wetting, Headaches, Paralysis, Hay Fever, Catarrh, Goiter and affections of the Eyes, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Liver, Spleen, (Heart), Bowels, Bladder, Kidneys and reproductive organs quickly and permanently disappear under Chiropractic adjustments properly given. Spinal Curvature quickly corrected. If you are sick or suffering in any way; if you have tried many physicians, specialists and medicines to no avail, then it is your plain duty to consult a chiropractor.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF DANDRUFF

End Itching Scalp and Stop Falling Hair—At Once.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

WELSH STOWING AWAY THE MONEY

Light Weight Champion Has Taken Down $50,000 in the Five Weeks

He Has Been Here

HAVE ALL BEEN GOOD MEN

In This Time Has Met More Fighters Than Ritchie Did in Year and Half

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)
New York, Dec. 4.—When light-weight Champion Freddie Welsh stowed away his share of the receipts for his bout with Young Shugrue at Madison Squire Garden last Wednesday, it brought his earnings for five weeks up to more than $50,000.

It broke all get-rich-quick fighting known to civilized and uncivilized mankind. If Welsh could keep up the record for twelve months his income for the fifty-two weeks would be the astonishing total of $520,000. But the money making record was not the only one smashed to atoms. During the year and six months that Willie Ritchie held the lightweight crown, he fought fewer men than Welsh has in the past 35 days. No champion in any division has ever fought that many men in the same period of time.

Mighty few champions have fought that number of good men throughout their whole careers as titleholders. Welsh has fought 'em all, as they came along, as has been mentioned once previous in this column. Every man he has faced has been in the top division of light-weights. There were Baldwin, Cross, White, Wolgast and Shugrue. Both Wolgast and Ritchie found alibis to prevent a meeting with Young Shugrue. Welsh merely named the money for which he'd fight—and went in and fought. In between the Baldwin and Shugrue fights, Welsh met Fred Yelle at Boston on Nov. 24, and Young Brown at Syracuse two nights later.

Princeton could go along way and do a lot worse than sign up Logan Cunningham to do the Haughton act for the Tigers. Cunningham is one of the best football players Harvard ever had. He not only knows the game but he has the knack of instilling fight into men—being some digger himself. If Princeton had fought throughout the Yale game as during that wonderful last quarter, Yale might not have gotten away with that 19 to 14 score. Cunningham writes me that three big Western universities are after him for next year. Any time the West puts its approval on a man, nine times out of ten, the man is worth the price. It would be a shame for Princeton to lose "Cunni."

RIVALRY SHOWS UP AMONG TOWNS

Number of Indiana Cities Are in Fight to Sell Most Red Cross

Seals This Season.

CAMPAIGN, BEING PLANNED

This Arouses Ambition of Many Smaller Communities—Enthusiasm Above the Average.

A friendly but spirited rivalry has sprung up between many Indiana cities in the 1914 Red Cross campaign which is in full swing. Fort Wayne, Terre Haute and Indianapolis hold franchises in the Red Cross Seal League and are out "after the scalps" of Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Detroit and Grand Rapids.

The campaign committee in each of these Indiana cities is secretly planning to sell more seals on a per capita basis than the others. The offer of pennants to be awarded to cities and towns which lead the United States in per capita sales, has also aroused the ambition of many smaller communities and Rochester, Richmond, Crawfordsville, Sullivan, Laporte, Michigan City, Anderson, Muncie, Decatur, Marion, Washington, Lagrange, Rushville, Logansport, Hartford City, Peru, Franklin, Connersville, Lafayette, Plymouth, Elkhart, New Albany, and many other Indiana cities will be reckoned with, when determining the winners. The national championship on the per capita basis went to a Wyoming city last year.

Never has Indiana witnessed as much Red Cross Seal enthusiasm as is being manifested this year. A member of the state commission has been quoted as follows: "Indiana had no part in bringing about the devastation and suffering in Europe, but we are all jointly responsible for conditions here at home. That tuberculosis thrives in Indiana is due to Indiana's neglect. We can make up for this neglect in a large measure by buying liberally of Red Cross Seals. Anti-Tuberculosis workers in this state are working against tremendous odds. They are handicapped by the lack of adequate funds. Since Red Cross Seal money is used entirely in this crusade against the 'white plague' and since all of us are subject to the danger of infection by those who are suffering from it, let us rally to the support of the seal committee in our respective communities. Let us remember that every penny spent for Red Cross Seals is a bullet at tuberculosis—our common foe. Let us live up to our allotment—Ten Seals Per Capita."

PEACE TREATY IMPENDING

Reports of Agreement Between Carranza and Gutierrez.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 4.—Circumstantial reports of an impending peace agreement between Carranza and his chief and the Gutierrez government in Mexico City reached here today from half a dozen sources. It is known that Carranza is discouraged because Villa and Zapata have "buried the hatchet" and that he is not convinced of the loyalty of his own chief generals.

MEETING POSTPONED.

(By United Press.)
El Paso, Tex., Dec. 4.—General Zapata is reluctant to return to Mexico City and the meeting with General Villa which had been planned there has been postponed, according to advices received today.

HOLLAND COMES TO BELGIANS AID

Dutch Government Now Shelters 300,000 Refugees From Her

Unfortunate Neighbor.

WANTS TO PROVIDE FOR THEM

Politely Refuses an Unofficial Offer For Help Made by American Charity.

The Hague, (Vit London), Dec. 4.—The Dutch government has categorically declined all offers of financial aid for Belgian refugees in Holland which were recently unofficially made by an American charity. While deeply appreciative of the generous proposal, the government says it feels that it would become incompatible with the country's honor to allow another nation or individual association to assist in this mercy work, and that Holland desires to provide herself for all those different neighbors who are afflicted by the war.

Of the million Belgian refugees who fled into Holland at the beginning of the war 300,000 penniless ones remain. One-half of these are living in the two southern provinces of Brabant and Zeeland. The remainder are divided among eight hundred communities.

Winter is approaching and these refugees are now being gathered together in specially constructed camps situated on the dunes of Heath and at other healthy spots. For this purpose a special judgment of about $1,500,000 has been passed to cover the expenses until January. After that a further credit of $3,000,000 will be given.

The gravest task in store for the authorities is the rounding up and concentrating of former inmates of Belgian prisons, who were liberated wholesale by the Belgian authorities before the arrival of the Germans, and now are considered a public menace.

In addition to the refugees there are 45,000 Belgian soldiers who crossed the border into Holland and were interned. These men also are being supported in special camps. The expense for their maintenance eventually will be paid by the Belgian government, according to international law.

NEW BUILDING IS DEDICATED

Bloomington Completes Structure at Total Cost of $140,000—Contains Ample Room

ADDRESS BY DR. W. L. BRYAN

(By United Press.)
Bloomington, Ind., Dec. 4.—This city dedicated its new $140,000 high school building today. The entire day was set for the dedication. This afternoon a program was given in the large auditorium of the new building by the high school students. This evening the formal dedication will take place. The dedication address will be made by Dr. William Lowe Bryan, president of the Indiana University.

The new building was completed last July and has been occupied since the beginning of the present school year. The building and its equipment makes one of the modern school plants to be found in the state. It is of dark brown pressed brick, trimmed in native stone, and contains ample room for the increased growth of the high school for many years to come.

3 INDICTMENTS RETURNED

David A. Sullivan Accused as Result of Investigation.

(By United Press.)
New York, Dec. 4.—Three indictments for grand larceny were returned against David A. Sullivan, convicted wrecker of the Union Trust company now serving a term in Sing Sing, by the King's county grand jury today.

The indictments grow out of the investigation which resulted in the discovery that Sullivan had been taken on "joy rides" by former warden McCormick after his incarceration in Sing Sing and it was alleged had been able to transact business on trips which he made from the prison to New York and Brooklyn.

HAD SAME COUGH FOR SEVERAL YEARS

Woman Fifty Years Old—Coughed More or Less Since Childhood—Found No Relief Until She Got Vinol.

Dayton, Ohio.—"I want everybody to know what Vinol has done for me. I am now fifty years old and ever since I was a young girl I have had a cough most of the time, and sick headaches which left me weak and with no desire for food.

"I took all kinds of medicines but nothing seemed to do me any good. Finally my druggist asked me to try Vinol, saying that if it did not help me he would refund my money. I felt so much better after taking one bottle I bought more. Now my cough is entirely cured. I have no more sick headaches. I have a good appetite and feel better than I ever did in my life, and I cannot recommend Vinol too highly."—Mrs. J. C. SCHNEIDER, Dayton, Ohio.

Vinol is not a secret nostrum, simply a combination of the medicinal elements found in cod livers, together with tonic iron, contains no oil and is delicious tasting. We ask every man or woman in this vicinity suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, and every weak, run-down person to try Vinol.

Big Men of Nation Go to Church. Get the Habit! Join the Procession!

IT is deplorable, but nevertheless true, that there are men who think it savors of effeminacy to be seen often in church. These men should awaken to the error of their ways.

The really strong men, the men of the nation, are constant churchgoers. They rarely miss a Sunday. The story is told of a great composer who on one occasion was accorded a magnificent ovation. The audience cheered him for fully five minutes. It was a tribute calculated to turn any man's head. Then there came cries for a speech. The composer faced the great multitude of his admirers and said:

"WHAT DOTH IT PROFIT A MAN TO GAIN THE WHOLE WORLD AND LOSE HIS OWN SOUL?"

THAT WAS ALL. THE AUDIENCE WAS ELECTRIFIED. THEY KNEW THE DEEP RELIGION OF THE MAN AND GRASPED THE SIGNIFICANCE OF HIS REMARKS. THE OVATION THAT WENT BEFORE WAS AS NOTHING COMPARED TO THAT WHICH FOLLOWED. THAT GREAT AUDIENCE DIDN'T THINK THIS MAN EFFEMINATE. HE WAS BIG ENOUGH TO PROCLAIM PUBLICLY HIS FAITH IN GOD AND A HEREAFTER. IT IS THE WEAK RATHER THAN THE STRONG MAN WHO, WHILE PROFESSING A BELIEF IN GOD, REMAINS AWAY FROM CHURCH. IF YOU BELIEVE IN GOD, PRACTICE YOUR BELIEF BY GOING TO CHURCH. GOD DOESN'T ASK MUCH OF YOUR TIME.

Don't delay GOING TO CHURCH. Start in next Sunday. Get the habit. You'll find it is not a hard task. Join the procession. By going to church you set a good example to your neighbor. It will set him thinking. You will please your wife, your mother, your sister. It will fill them with happiness to see that you are on the road to righteousness. And be honest with yourself. Don't you know you are a lot happier after an hour with God? GO TO CHURCH!

Nor had this been all. Leaving aside all that had led up to Alan's rescue by Coast: the forced landing of the hydro-aeroplane for lack of fuel had taken place on the south shore of the Great South bay; a search of hours had followed before a boat was found to convey Alan and the aviator to the mainland; and a motor run of several hours had followed that, conveying Coast to his Hempstead hangars and Alan on to his hotel in New York.

Another man would have needed twelve hours in bed at the least to compensate for such a day: Mr. Law awakened in a lamb-like temper when called at eleven-thirty.

At midnight he committed an act of burglary, calmly and with determination breaking his way into the house of Seneca Trine through the area windows and basement.

In this nefarious business nothing hindered and none opposed him. But for a single lighted window in the upper tier (but not, he noted, the window to Rose's bedchamber) and one or two lights which he found burning dim in the kitchen offices and other servants' quarters on the lower floor he would have thought the house empty. The silence of an abandoned place informed it all—below the upper story. But he was not to be satisfied with such negative evidence: he explored the dwelling minutely, room by room, story by story, passing with little interest through apartments by every sign dedicated to the tendency of his mortal enemy, intent on one object only—to find Rose Trine, that one woman whom he loved, or else make sure she was not there.

He negotiated that last flight of steps which led to the topmost floor with extraordinary stealth, advised thereto by a sound, or rather a series of sustained sounds, which had theretofore been inaudible to him. Possibly they had not till then existed; possibly the man servant whom he found snoring in a chair outside a closed door had not fallen asleep and begun to snore until the moment when Alan set foot upon the lower step of that final ascent.

Turning the head of the stairs, Alan paused for a little, speculatively intent on this man who must somehow be disposed of before he might solve the secret of that shut and guarded door.

Aside from actual violence no solution offered to the puzzle—and violence was abruptly forced upon him. No sound warned him of the door that opened at his back as he stood watching the sleeping guard. A piercing shriek was the first intimation he received that his presence had been discovered. It served as well to move him instantly into action: a single glance overshooulder showed him the figure of a maid-servant in cap and gown, her mouth still wide and full of sound—and Alan fell upon the guard like a thunderbolt. The man had barely time to jump up and recognize the alarm; then a fist caught him on the point of his jaw, and he returned promptly to deep unconsciousness.

No time now for qualms of compunction on account of the savage ruthlessness of that blow; no time even to search the fellow for a key to the closed door: already the maid was taking the stairs in full flight and cry, four steps and a howl like a warlock's to every jump.

Backing off, Alan took a short run, cleared the prostrate body of the guard with a leap, and flung himself full force against the door, his shoulder striking a point nearest the lock. With a splintering crash it broke inward. Without dignity or decorum he sprawled on all fours into the presence of Judith Trine.

"Poor Mr. Law!" she cried, with a mocking nod, "always disappointed! I'm so sorry—truly I am!"

"Oh, spare me your sarcasm," he begged resentfully. "It's ridiculous enough, this whole mad business—"

"But I am not sarcastic," she insisted with such sincerity that he opened his eyes in wonder. "Believe me, I am sorry for once it is I and not Rose whom you find locked up here! For, you see, I am locked up, by way of punishment—thanks to my having had pity on you once too often—while my father decamps mysteriously for parts unknown—"

"You don't know where he's gone, then?"

"Do you?" she asked sharply.

"In a general way. By special train to the West—"

"Taking Rose?"

FOR RENT—Residence at 320 West Seventh street. Deep well, cistern, cellar and barn. B. L. Trabue. 184t11.

"So I'm told."

The woman choked upon her anger, but quickly mastered it. "He shall pay for this!" she asseverated.

"Your father? I wish him nothing more nor less than your enemy," Alan assured her civilly. "But since it seems that he has gone, and Rose with him, if you'll forgive me, I think I'll be going—"

"Alone?"

That one word, uttered with all the significance that this woman knew so well how to infuse into her tone, checked him suspiciously on the threshold.

"Why—yes."

"You wouldn't care for a companion du voyage?" she suggested.

"Oh—really!" he protested.

She held up an arresting hand. "Listen!" she begged.

From the street below came the unmistakable rattle of a policeman's locust on the sidewalk.

"That damned maid!" Alan divined thoughtfully.

"The same," Judith agreed with ominous calm. "Has it struck you that you may have some trouble getting away without my permission?"

"I'm not so stupid as not to have thought of that," he countered.

"Then be advised—and take me with you."

"In what capacity, please? As enemy or ally?"

"As ally—you're right: we can't be friends—until we overtake that special train. After that, by your leave, I'll shift for myself."

"It's not such a bad notion," he reflected: "with you under my eye, you can't do much to interfere—"

"If I promise—" she suggested.

"I'll take your word," he agreed simply. "But you're in for a lot of hardship, I'm afraid. The one way to catch up with your father is by aeroplane—and I've got one waiting."

She nodded intently. "Don't consider me as a woman when it comes to hardship," she hinted obliquely.

"I've no reason to, going on what I know of you."

"Give me one minute to find my coat and hat."

In less than that time she was at his side in the hallway.

The police entered by the front door as the two crept out of the area window.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Via Air Line.

Not once in the course of the next sixteen hours but a thousand times Alan questioned (and, it will readily be allowed, with all excuses) his sanity in permitting himself to be influenced to humor Judith's insistence and make her a party to this wild aerial cross-country dash.

Between whiles the plane flew fast and high, cutting a direct line, as the crow flies, athwart the eastern and western states.

Chicago they raised as a smudge on the northern horizon about one o'clock in the afternoon; thereafter some little time was lost in descents to ascertain the identity of the many railroad lines that criss-crossed the swimming landscape. Only at the third cast did they succeed in picking up the line of the Santa Fe. And it was some hours later, though still daylight, when they picked up the special train, flying like a bunting across the levels.

There was scant room for doubt that it was the train they sought. Specials are not common. Moreover Alan contrived with considerable difficulty to focus binoculars upon the rear platform of the car, and caught a fugitive glimpse of a white-coated figure with a black face that was watching the biplane in the same manner, that is, with glasses.

The man in the white coat, Alan assured himself, was positively Barcus.

And, hardly had he comforted himself with this assurance when his sardonic destiny struck the motor dumb.

In response to his look of dashed inquiry the aviator merely shook a weary head and muttered the words: "Engine trouble."

Swiftly the earth rose to receive the volplaning mechanism. Under Coast's admirable handling it settled down almost without a jar, on the outskirts of a city whose name Alan never learned.

For the biplane was barely at a standstill before he was cut and, reeling with the giddiness that affects men after long flights, making his way as best he might toward the manager's office connected with a trainyard immediately adjacent to the spot where they had come to earth.

Lavish disbursements of money won him his way against official protests that what he demanded was an impossibility. Within twenty minutes, leaving Coast to follow on when and as best he might, Alan and Judith were spinning through open country in the cab of an engine running light, with only clear track between it and the special.

The several hours that ensued before the rear lights of the special were brought to view were none too many for the task imposed upon Alan of overcoming the scruples of the engineer and fireman.

Another minute, and less than fifty feet separated the two—the special train and the light engine, both hurtling through the light at top speed.

With a word to the engineer Alan crept out along the side of the boiler, with only a greasy handrail and a narrow foothold between himself and what meant death, or something closely resembling it, should he be shaken off by the tearing wind and the swaying of the locomotive.

It seemed an hour before he worked himself up to the cowcatcher—now within four feet of the rear platform of the special.

On this last he could see a woman's figure indistinctly silhouetted against the light through the door, and beside her a man in a white coat, clinging for dear life to the knob of the door—

Escape of Alan and Judith.

holding it against the frantic efforts of some persons inside to tear it open.

Another hour of suspense dragged out—or such was the effect—while the light engine with intolerable slowness bridged those four scant feet.

At length it was feasible to attempt the thing. Rose (he could see her strained white face quite plainly now) was half over the rail of the car ahead, ready to jump.

His heart failed him. It was too hazardous a risk. He dared not let her take it.

Something very like a shot sounded from the train and something very like a bullet whistled past his cheek, and proved the signal for several more.

Strangely, that knowledge steadied his nerves. Straining forward and holding on to a bar so hot that it scorched his palm, he offered a hand to the girl on the rail.

Her hand fell confidently into it. She jumped. His arm wound round her as she landed on the platform of the cowcatcher. He heard her breathe his name, then hurriedly passed her between himself and the boiler to the footway at the side. The fireman was waiting there to help her. Alan turned his attention to Barcus.

To his dismay he found that the engine was losing ground. The space was widening rapidly as Barcus released the knob and threw himself over the rail.

By a miraculous, flying leap, the man accomplished that incredible feat and gained the platform.

An instant later ten feet separated the engine from the special, as the engineer applied the brakes.

And this he did none too soon: for at the same time Marrophat and another appeared on the rear platform and opened a hot, but, thanks to the widening distance, ineffectual fire.

The engine ground slowly to a halt as the rear lights of the special train swept from sight round a bend.

Head Stopped Up? Can't Breathe? Try the New External Treatment

Applied in Salve Form Over Throat and Chest Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption.

Vapor treatments are best for all inflammation of the air passages. The vapors carry the medication direct to the inflamed surface without disturbing the stomach as do internal medicines. A cheap and very convenient vapor treatment is a good application of Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Croup and Pneumonia Salve over the throat and chest, covered with a warm flannel cloth. The body heat releases vapors of Thymol, Eucalyptol, Menthol, Camphor, and Pine Tar, that are inhaled with every breath, through the air passages to the lungs. These vapors open the air passages, loosen the phlegm, and heal the raw surfaces. If the cold is in the chest, apply hot wet towels to open the pores. Vick's is then absorbed through the skin, taking out that tightness and soreness.

A little Vick's applied up the nostrils and over the temples is very beneficial for head colds and catarrh and will relieve most cases of headache and neuralgia. Vick's is also excellent for Asthma, Hay Fever, and Bronchial Troubles. Three sizes, at all dealers—25c, 50c, and $1.00.

The Best Guarantee You Can Get

with any article is the Unwritten Guarantee. The guarantee that years of satisfactory service has made. If you want a flowery guarantee written with gilded ink on fine bond paper, buy a fraud. If it is necessary for the fraud to guarantee you a lot of richly painted stuff in order to get your business. Do you want a guarantee with a Stetson Hat, A Singer Sewing Machine or a Packard Automobile? No, you don't. Why? Because you know these articles are right and always have been, and if you were to buy one of these articles that was wrong it would be made right without any argument. Nice satisfactory way to do business ain't it. Do you know of any one with one of our buggies that is not satisfied, that thinks he got a dirty deal, that thinks he paid for something he didn't get, or thinks we are rough to do business with? If you know a man of this kind we want to see him because every buggy we sell has to be satisfactory. That is why your neighbors buy their buggies from us. They know—they have had the experience and realize the fact that buying their buggies of us means satisfaction. We have a nice line of STORM BUGGIES for you to make a selection from and want you to see them before you buy, then if you buy one of our buggies you will be a satisfied customer the rest of your life. Watch our satisfied customers make our Buggy business grow.

ADVISE GIVEN TO HOUSEWIVES

Bulletin by Department of Home Economics of Purdue Tells How To Serve the Meal

POOR POLICY TO BUY COTTON

Should Pay More Attention to This Than Cooking is One of Surprising Statements

Lafayette, Ind., Dec. 4.—Advise is given housewives by a bulletin prepared for the United Press by the department of home economics of Purdue university. The subject is "Serving the Meal."

If the housewife would spend more time on the serving and less time on the cooking, the meal would often be more satisfactory in many ways, is one of the surprising statements. The bulletin then takes up the consideration of table linen.

"It is poor economy to buy cotton, for cotton tablecloths collect dirt much easier than linen because of the fuzzy surface," states the bulletin. "Linen tablecloths cost more in the beginning but they wear much longer." Red cotton cloths should be avoided because they do not show the dirt and often become insanitary before they are washed.

"Good manners and a neat appearance are not to be expected at a table where the dishes and silver are put on in a haphazard manner," it continues. The bulletin admits there is a conflict of authorities concerning arrangement of silver, but says that some system should be followed.

Plain white dishes are recommended. Large designs are said to become tiresome. Gaudily decorated dishes should never be purchased. The bulletin recommends that the meal be served in courses to avoid the overburdened appearance often caused when all the food is served at once. A few minutes devoted to the changing of dishes will prevent the diners from eating too rapidly—an American trait, according to the bulletin.

"When removing plates go to the right hand side of the guest. Plates should also be placed from the right hand side. In passing a serving dish from which each person is to help himself, it should be passed from the left hand. In this way, the person being served will be able to use the right hand without twisting the body. The tea cart with two trays is recommended for use in clearing the table. It 'saves steps.'"

DEATH MAY NOT HAVE BEEN ACCIDENTAL

Henry County Grand Jury May Investigate Story That E. T. Manning Was Murdered.

LIVED NEAR KNIGHTSTOWN

That Henry county may have a murder case as the result of the death of Edward T. Manning, age thirty-eight years, at his home at the edge of Knightstown, October 10, is indicated from rumors at Newcastle that his death was something more than accidental and that the grand jury will likely investigate.

Coroner Weaver of Henry county filed a verdict October 12 to the effect that Manning met his death through being kicked by a Belgian sorrel mare, fracturing his skull, one and one-half inches above the mastoid process on the left side of the head. Two witnesses were examined by the coroner in his investigation.

It is now rumored that possibly Manning was not kicked by a horse, and that probably he was murdered. It is said that Manning was found unconscious in the barn and that he was carried to the house and died in the afternoon of the same day without recovering consciousness.

enne at Washington has announced that until further notice the collectors in Indiana, and those in other states, shall be guided by the regulations of 1898 in imposing the stamp tax on promissory notes. These regulations that are now in effect provide as follows:

"A judgment note is a promissory note and is required to be stamped as such."

"Receipts accepted in lieu of promissory notes, as evidence of money loaned, must be stamped as promissory notes."

"Promissory notes under seal are taxable the same as other promissory notes and not as bonds."

"Checks used in lieu of promissory notes must be stamped at the rate of 2 cents per $100."

"Where a note or notes with detached interest coupon notes are given, each coupon note requires a stamp in addition to the stamp placed on the principal note."

"Interest coupons attached to bonds and surrendered as receipts for interest paid do not require a stamp."

"No stamp is required upon the transfer by indorsement of promissory notes."

"Where notes secured by a deed of trust are used as collateral, the deed of trust and the notes are required to be stamped, not on the basis of their face value, but on the amount for which they are pledged (that is to say, the memorandum of their pledge must be so stamped.) This pledge of notes and deed of trust does not require to be stamped again because of renewals of the notes held as collateral, if the pledge itself is not renewed."

"Promissory notes which have matured and have been allowed to run without suit are held not to be renewed by the payment of interest. This is looked upon as a 'forbearance' and not as a renewal, the holder not relinquishing his right of action for any stated period."

It is also understood that some of the old regulations of 1898 relating to insurance contracts will hold under the new emergency revenue law, and the commissioner announced that he will be guided by the terms of these old rulings.

GAME AT MILROY

The Connersville high school team will play at Milroy tonight. There is all kind of dope on the game. Milroy defeated Westport, which team defeated Connersville by a large score. Milroy lost to Brookville, which team won and tied with Connersville. From this it appears that the two teams are evenly matched.

STEVENS CHILD DEAD.

The thirteen-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stevens died this afternoon at two o'clock at their home near New Salem. The child had been ill for some time and death was expected. The funeral will be conducted Sunday afternoon.
